Tea Dance

3.30pm Village Hall

Join David Juritz with the other members of the Palm Court Trio of the Norfolk Mental Hospital to foxtrot, tango, waltz and quickstep the afternoon away.

With some amusing stories narrated by John Surry and the pleasures of a full cream tea all in the ticket price.

Sophia Rahman piano
Adrian Bradbury cello

After a friend rescued a large music collection from a building site, David Juritz was fascinated to discover that it was the music library of the Norfolk Mental Hospital Orchestra, an ensemble made up of hospital patients and staff, that met twice a week for nearly seventy years. David bought the entire collection, formed a 'tribute band' and presents a selection of waltzes, foxtrots and other dances from the orchestra's extensive library. David's story of the NMHO and life in the institute was the subject of the Radio 4 programme, 'The Asylum Band'.

Sophia Rahman piano and Claire Bradshaw mezzo-soprano, perform together on Wednesday 12 August at Norburton Hall
